"I shall go to him, but he will not return to me," said David upon the death of his son. II Samuel 12:23

As in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive...The last enemy to be destroyed is death. I Corinthians 15:22,26

We look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are unseen. For the things that are seen are temporal, but the things that are unseen are eternal. For we know that if the tent that is our earthly home is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens... For while we are still in this tent, we groan, being burdened -- not that we would be unclothed, but that we would be further clothed, so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life.
 II Corinthians 4:18-5:5
