The image shows a musical score for the song 'Spanish Ladies'. It consists of three systems of music, each with a treble and bass clef staff. The key signature is one sharp (F#). The first system (measures 21-25) has chords Bm, Em, G, and D. The second system (measures 26-30) has chords G, D, G, Bm, and C. The third system (measures 31-35) has chords D, Am, Bm, and Em. The lyrics are written below the treble staff.

21 sail - ors, we'll rant and we'll roar all on the salt seas, Un -

26 til we strike sound - ings in the chan - nel of old Eng - land: From U - shant to

31 Scil - ly is thir - ty - five leagues.

3. The first land we sighted was called the Dodman,
 Next Rame head off Plymouth, off Portsmouth the Wight;
 We sailed by Beachy, by Fairlight and Dover,
 And then we bore up for the South Foreland light.

Chorus:

We will rant and we'll roar like true British sailors,
 We'll rant and we'll roar all on the salt seas,
 Until we strike soundings in the channel of old England:
 From Ushant to Scilly is thirty-five leagues.

4. Then the signal was made for the grand fleet to anchor,
 And all in the Downs that night for to lie;
 Let go your shank painter, let go your cat stopper!
 Haul up your clewgarnets, let tacks and sheets fly!
5. Now let ev'ry man drink off his full bumper,
 And let ev'ry man drink off his full glass;
 We'll drink and be jolly and drown melancholy,
 And here's to the health of each true-hearted lass.
